Program News

March 16 - Debby Brown's presentation on home machine quilting was entertaining and informative. Twenty-one members participated in her workshop following the presentation.

April 13 - Judy Craddock presentation and trunk show on French boutis quilting. Three-hour workshop ($15) on French boutis quilting following her presentation and lunch (BYO lunch). Supplies additional

May 18 - Betty Pillsbury presentation and trunk show on crazy quilting. Three-hour workshop ($15) on Crazy Embroidery following presentation and lunch. (BYO lunch). Supplies additional.

Twin Quilt Charity Quilt Project

Several quilts were completed and returned in March. Many more were signed out. The greatest need now is for them to be quilted and bound. Backing is provided with many of the quilt tops, and batting is in the process of being purchased to go along with the quilts. Sign out a quilt at our table in April.

Catskill Mountain Quilters Hall of Fame

A handful of fidget quilts have been completed and will be donated to the Northeast Trauma Center. Keep them coming!

19th Century Patchwork Divas

I read an article about the 19th Century Patchwork Divas. They make miniature (and regular) quilts in the style of the 19th century. They choose that time period for their interest in history as well as the fact that each quarter of the 1800's has its own look (pre-Civil War, Civil War, Westward Expansion/Prairie, Victorian, and Baltimore). I thought it would be fun to have a miniature group to create these historic quilts. The appeal of small quilts is they can be finished in a reasonable amount of time.

Once I see if there is any interest, we can decide if we want each person to create their own quilt or do a block exchange. We would also need to agree as to when, how often (I was thinking monthly) and where we should meet. We can miniaturize patterns or we can work from a book (for example, Kathleen Tracy's Civil War Doll Quilts or Prairie Doll Quilts). I am open to your ideas, So...if this sounds like something of interest to you, please contact me at Nelle@yahoo.com.
